Description of your expertise / the expertise you are looking for

(up to 1000 characters)

University College Logos (Department of Theology & Culture, Tirana, Albania) leads the MSc in Religious Tourism and coordinates the Religious Tourism Forum (RTF), a network of academics, public bodies, travel agencies and embassies promoting religious tourism. Albania has three main religious traditions – Orthodox, Catholic and Muslim/Bektashi – offering a rich, under-promoted heritage of monasteries, churches, mosques and tekkes. We contribute academic expertise: heritage documentation, historical-theological contextualisation, curated content and dissemination through RTF's network. For this call on virtual worlds, we can collaborate with another institution and a technical partner able to digitally reconstruct religious monuments (not only in Albania, but in the Balkans in general) and build an immersive virtual-world/3D environment showcasing them, boosting touristic visibility and promotion, while we provide site selection, historical content and dissemination channels among tourism professionals, pilgrims and academics.
