Description of your organisation or the consortium for which you need a partner:

The Faculty of Informatics and Management (FIM), University of Hradec Králové, Czech Republic, is an interdisciplinary academic and research institution bridging computer science, advanced digital technologies, data-driven research, management and economics. FIM combines technological expertise with socio-economic perspectives and a strong orientation towards real-world applications and responsible digital transformation. Through cooperation with academic, public and industry partners, FIM supports interdisciplinary research, validation, knowledge transfer and stakeholder engagement. Its multidisciplinary environment makes FIM a valuable partner for Horizon Europe consortia seeking to connect cutting-edge digital research with real-world validation, impact assessment, exploitation and uptake of results.
